It is an honour and privilege for me to be afforded an a opportunity offer some few words on the eve of this important occasion of the official opening of the Provincial Or Tambo Games. It is a milestone for the event of this magnified to take place in our shore.

Programme Director

These games were previously known as South African Games and in honour of the late and longest serving ANC President Oliver Reginald Tambo, the games were renamed OR Tambo Games.

Programme Director

The primary objective of staging these games is to unearth new talent, which is good for the development of sports in our country.

Programme Director

Apart from promotion of Sports, these games also play a prominent role of bringing us together as Local Municipality, District

Municipality, Provincially, Nationally as well as continentally.
